

Rite of Investiture
With the Scapular of the Six-Month Experience¹ outside the Eucharistic Celebration

¹ ITALIAN BISHOPS' CONFERENCE, Benedizionale, Roma, ed. LEV, 1992 / NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS, Shorter Book of Blessings, New York, 1990 [adapted to the conferral of the six-month scapular of the Little Friars and Little Nuns of Jesus and Mary]

Rite of Investiture with the Scapular outside the Eucharistic Celebration

ENTRANCE SONG

When all have gathered, a suitable song may be sung, or there may be a brief moment of recollection. Then all make the sign of the cross, while the minister says:

C In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

R. Amen.

C Through the Son, born of Mary,
every blessing comes to us from God the Father.
May his grace and peace be with you all.

R. And with your spirit.

INTRODUCTION

The minister, or another suitable person, introduces the rite of blessing with these (or similar) words:

C God uses ordinary things as signs to express his extraordinary mercy towards us. Through simple things as well we express our gratitude, declare our willingness to serve God, and profess the resolve to live up to our baptismal commitment.

This scapular is a sign of experience with the Religious Community of the "Little Friars and Little Nuns of Jesus and Mary," approved by the Church. The scapular thus expresses the intention of sharing in the spirit and in the fellowship of prayer of that Community.

That intention renews our baptismal resolve to put on Christ, with the help of the Virgin Mary, to the praise and glory of the Trinity, until, living in its mystery of love, and dressed for the wedding feast, we reach our home in heaven.

C Through Christ, our Lord.

R. Amen.

READING OF THE WORD OF GOD

Mk. 10:17-22

Encounter of Jesus with a rich man.

L Brothers and sisters, listen to the words of the Gospel according to Mark:

As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother.'" He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

C Brief Exhortation (little "homily")

Brief silence.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

C God, our good Father, you chose the most pure womb of the Virgin Mary to clothe the Word of life in mortal flesh by the work of the Holy Spirit, so that, having been made participants in the grace of Christ, the first-born of many brothers, we might live to the praise of your glory. Sustained by the intercession of Mary, our Mother and Queen, let us say together:

A R. Dress us, O Father, in Christ your Son.

L Father, you willed to have your beloved Son take on our humanity, so that in him we might share your own life; grant that we may be called and truly be your children. For this we pray: R.

You wished Christ to be in every respect like us, but without sin, so that in following him we might share in his filial image; grant that we may follow Christ so as to please you in all things. For this we pray: R.

You call all those who are clothed in the wedding garment of the kingdom to the feast of your grace, where you reveal yourself to them; teach us to serve and love you loyally. For this we pray: R.

Through Saint Paul you urge us to be the sweet fragrance of Christ's goodness in the world; let us become the sign of Christ's presence for our brothers and sisters. For this we pray: R.

You clothe us with the robe of righteousness and holiness, so that through the Holy Spirit we may live for you and show forth the holiness of your Church; through Christ make us grow in holiness, so that we may work together generously for the salvation of others. For this we pray: R.

You bless us with every spiritual blessing in Christ, so that at his glorious coming, we may run towards him clothed in the wedding garment; grant that, with Mary at our side together with your saints, we may pass from death to endless life. For this we pray: R.

C And now let us all together pray as the Lord has taught us.

C+A Our Father.

PRAYER FOR THE BLESSING OF THE SCAPULAR

With hands outstretched, the celebrant continues:

- C Oh God, the author and perfecter of all holiness, you call all who are reborn of water and the Holy Spirit to the fullness of life in Christ and the perfection of charity.

Bless this scapular

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, ✠ and of the Holy Spirit.

Help her who wears it with devotion to become a sharer in the image of Christ your Son, and, after she has fulfilled her mission on earth with the help of the Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel, Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, and Saint Maximilian Maria Kolbe, receive her into the joy of your heavenly home. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R. Amen.

Then the minister pronounces the following words, while the sister responsible for formation confers the scapular:
